THE Grand Jury ſworn to enquire for our Sovereign Lord the King, for the Body of this City and Liberty, having this Day made a Preſentment (a Copy whereof is here under written) againſt John Henley, Clerk, his Accomplices and Aſſiſtants (unknown) to the Number of Fifty or more, for holding and keeping unlawful Aſſemblies in the Pariſh of St. Anne within this Liberty of Weſtminſter, wherein Routs and Riots have been committed on ſeveral Days mentioned in the ſaid Preſentment, and for other unlawful Practices by them uſed and done againſt His Majeſty's Peace, His Crown and Dignity; Now upon reading the ſaid Preſentment, and Conſideration had thereof, it is thought fit and ordered by this Court, that the ſaid Preſentment be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

per Cur' Middleton.

WHereas the Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, for exempting their Majeſties Proteſtant Subjects diſſenting from the Church of England from the Penalties of certain Laws, was wiſely deſigned as an Indulgence for the tender and ſcrupulous Conſciences of ſuch Diſſenters, and as a Means to unite all the Proteſtant Subjects in Intereſt and Affection. And whereas it is notorious that John Henley, Clerk in Prieſt's Orders, according to the Form of the Church of England, did about three Years ſince hire a large Room over the Market-Houſe in Newport-Market, within this City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and cauſe the ſaid Room to be regiſtred in the Court of the Archdeacon of Middleſex (purſuant to the ſaid Act of Toleration) as a Place for Religious Worſhip to be performed therein by him the ſaid John Henley, who pretended to diſſent from the Church of England on Account of Infant Baptiſm (although that has been the leaſt of his Exerciſes, nor are his Audiences of that Perſwaſion) and by his Advertiſements in the publick News Papers, invited all Perſons to come thither and take Seats for Twelve Pence apiece, promiſing them Diverſion under the Titles of Voluntaries, Chimes of the Times, Roundelays, College Bobs, Madrigals and Operas, &c. And whereas it appears to us by Information upon Oath, that the ſaid John Henley, notwithſtanding his profeſs'd Diſſention and Separation from the Church of England, has uſually appeared in the Habit worn by Prieſts of the Church of England, and in that Habit has for ſeveral Months paſt, upon one or more Days in the Week, made uſe of the ſaid Room for Purpoſes very different from thoſe of Religious Worſhip; and that he has there diſcourſed on ſeveral Subjects of Burleſque and Ridicule; and therein, and in his Comments upon the publick
